To Col. Quarles,

I was at the Traverse City informational meeting. I was impressed with you. I felt that if the bombs and shells starting going off, you would make some quick decisions (right or wrong), but you would make them in good conscience and training. Your friends up on the stage would call a meeting and ask that a study be done to see what should be done.

I find it hard to believe that you are part of a team that "might" have a solution in 2015. From the temperment of our meeting, I think most of us want a solution to be now!

Thank you for your service.

Sincerely,

Steve Lockman
